■ Fifth-year senior who hopes to contribute this season as an outside shooter.

■ Has been a member of three Final Four teams at Carolina.

■ A regular in the weight room throughout his career and one of the strongest members of the UNC squad.

MICHAEL BROOKER

Fifth-year senior whose career has been plagued by injuries • A solid perimeter shooter • A good ballhandler and improving perimeter defender • Can knock down the three-pointer, but must show he is a consistent threat to earn more playing time this season • Has played in 54 career contests and been a member of three teams that won trips to the NCAA Final Four.

JUNIOR SEASON (1999-2000)

Played in 18 games and scored 16 points and grabbed nine rebounds • Scored six points against Michigan State and six against College of Charleston • Hit two three-pointers in both of those contests.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (1998-99)

Season was cut short when he re-injured his left knee in practice on Jan. 11th • Played in 14 games, including ACC games against Georgia Tech and Florida State • Scored a career-high 10 points on 3 of 5 shooting from the floor in the season opener against Appalachian State • Had five points and three assists against Dartmouth • Shot 9 for 25 from the floor, including 5 for 16 from three-point range during the season.

FRESHMAN SEASON (1997-98)

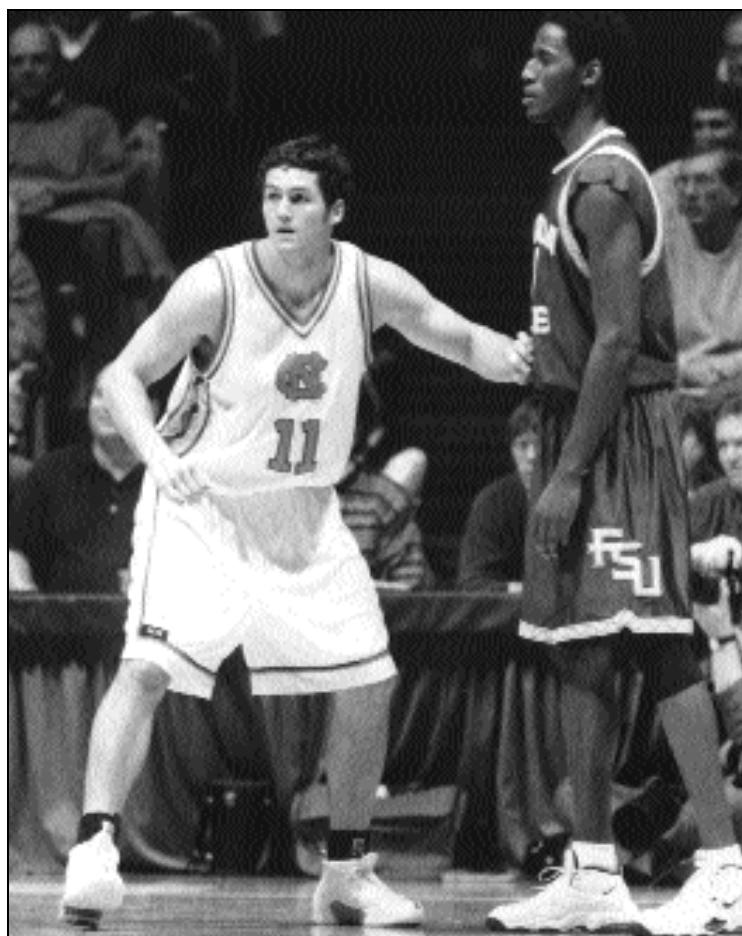

Played in 22 games as a red-shirt freshman • Scored 13 points, grabbed 10 rebounds and handed out eight assists • Had a season-high five points against Navy in Hartford, Conn., in the first round of the 1998 NCAA Tournament • Scored his first collegiate points on a three-point field goal against Seton Hall in the Carrs Great Alaska Shootout • Also scored against Virginia Tech and Appalachian State • Had two rebounds and an assist against NC State in the opening round of the 1998 ACC Tournament.

RED-SHIRT SEASON (1996-97)

Received a medical red-shirt • Injured his knee in May 1996 playing in a high school physical education class and had surgery to repair a torn anterior cruciate ligament on June 10, 1996.

PREP

Led Brentwood Academy to a 21-6 record and the quarterfinals of the state Independent Association Championship • Averaged 33.7 points and 10.5 rebounds per game and shot 48 percent from the floor, 39 percent from three-point range and 92.7 percent from the free throw line • Averaged 28.9 points per game as a junior •

Led UNC in blocked shots (60) and field goal percentage and was second on the team in scoring (12.0) and rebounding (6.9).

Posted nine double-doubles in points and rebounds • Scored 20 or more points three times, was in double figures in scoring 22 times and had 10 or more rebounds in a game 10 times.

Had 10 points and 10 rebounds in Carolina's win over fifth-ranked Maryland in the ACC Tournament semifinal • Led UNC with 16 points on 7 of 9 shooting in the home loss to Duke • Was 7 for 7 from the field and scored 18 points and had eight rebounds in the Tar Heels' 98-64 win over Florida State • Grabbed a career-high 16 rebounds, including a career-best seven offensive boards in a 71-47 win over Virginia.

Came off the bench to score 16 points, grab six boards and block four shots to lead the Tar Heels to a 59-56 victory at NC State • Had 18 points and 11 rebounds in a home loss against Maryland • Posted a career-high 24 points and had 12 rebounds in the loss at California on December 29th • Scored a team-high 20 points against Buffalo on 8 of 9 shooting.

Scored a then-career-high 21 points and pulled down 11 rebounds in Carolina's 54-47 win over Purdue in the NIT semifinal • Made 8 of 10 shots from the field and was 5 of 7 from the free throw line against the Boilermakers • He also blocked two shots, one of which was a critical block at the end of the game that resulted in a shot clock violation by Purdue with 1:19 to play.

In the NIT final victory over Stanford, he blocked six shots and scored seven points • He helped limit Stanford's starting front court to 7 of 27 shooting from the field.

Opened the season with 19 points and nine rebounds against Appalachian State.

FRESHMAN SEASON (1997-98)

Was the second man off the bench on a team that went 34-4 and advanced to the Final Four • Was essentially the top reserve since Carolina used a "six-man" starting rotation • Played almost 200 minutes, more than any other reserve • Averaged 8.1 minutes played per contest • Tied the UNC record by appearing in 38 games • Scored 110 points, grabbed 91 rebounds and blocked 33 shots • Averaged 2.9 points and 2.1 rebounds a game • Converted 53.0 percent of his field goal attempts (35 for 66) and 63.5 percent from the free throw line (40 of 63) • Had 37 offensive rebounds • Averaged one blocked shot every 9.3 minutes of action • Scored eight points and grabbed five boards January 8 against Georgia Tech • Blocked two shots and scored eight points in the January 28 win over Clemson • Was outstanding in the February 5th win over No. 1 ranked Duke at the Smith Center • Had seven points, three rebounds, a blocked shot and a steal in that win over Duke • Played well at Duke as he scored seven points and added five rebounds • Provided a big lift in the ACC Tournament semifinal win over Maryland with six points, four rebounds and a blocked shot • His 110 points accounted for 45.5 percent of all the scoring outside of the six starters.

Senior Guard/ForwardMacon, Ga.
Mt. Zion Academy
(N.C.)
Central (Ga.)

■ A candidate for significant playing time on the wing this season.

■ Excellent outside shooter with a career three-point percentage of .357.

■ Tied his career high with 23 points against UNLV last season.

■ One of the best free throw shooters in the ACC.

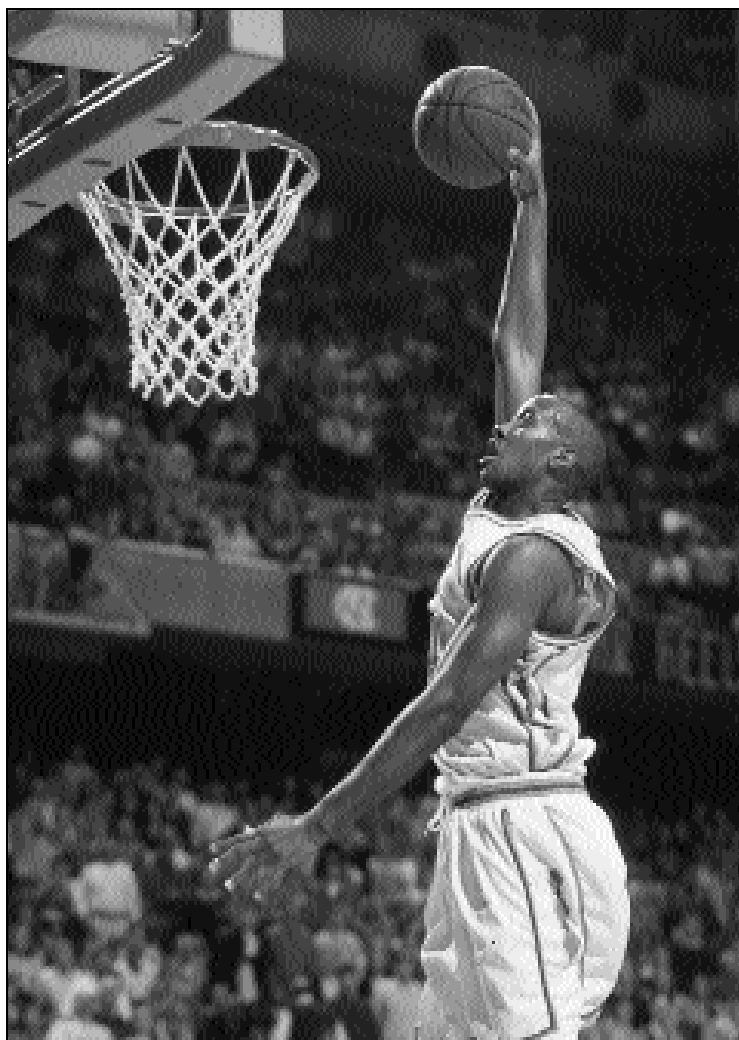

MAX OWENS

One of the most experienced players on the squad • Excellent long-range shooter • Showed a lot of improvement handling the ball last year as his turnovers went from 51 to 35 from a year before despite playing in five more games • Has consistently been one of the top free throw shooters in the ACC • Has made 81.0 percent from the line in his career (94 for 116) • Has scored in double figures 18 times in his career with a career-high 23 points against UNLV in Charlotte last December and against Maryland in the 1999 ACC Tournament semifinals • Has scored 20-plus points four times in his career, three times in the Charlotte Coliseum • Has good size and quickness to defend the other team's top perimeter threats • Has scored 539 points • Scored his 500th career point in the win at NC State on Feb. 9, 2000 • Field goal shooting percentage has improved each season (from .387 as a freshman to .431 as a sophomore to .490 as a junior).

JUNIOR SEASON (1999-2000)

Played in all 36 games and was sixth in scoring with 7.4 points per contest • Scored in double figures nine times with highs of 23 against UNLV, 22 against Louisville and 18 against #7 Michigan State and #1 Cincinnati • Was 5 for 9 from the floor, 2 for 3 in 3FG and 6 for 6 from the free throw line against the Spartans • Made 8 of 13 shots from the floor and was 5 for 5 from the line against UNLV • Made a career-high four three-point baskets against Cincinnati and Louisville • Had 17 points and six rebounds in the win at Miami • Made 6 of 10 from the field, including an acrobatic, left-handed reverse layup, and was 5 for 5 from the free throw line • Hit a three-pointer from the left corner that gave Carolina a 52-50 lead with 13:19 to play in the second half of the 75-63 win over Maryland • That gave UNC its first lead since the 11:59 mark of the first half, a lead Carolina would not relinquish the rest of the contest • Hit critical, back-to-back three-pointers in a 32-second span in the second half of the Feb. 9 game at NC State • His shots increased Carolina's lead from two points to eight as the Heels took control of the game. • Owens also had a huge tip-in off an Ed Cota missed free throw with 33.2 seconds left to play to give UNC a 10-point lead and ice the victory • Scored 10 points against Wake Forest on Feb. 12, his first double-figure day since scoring 14 against Clemson on Jan. 2 • Scored in double
